World Book Day

Dear Parent/Carer

We will be celebrating World Book Day this year on Thursday 5th March. On this day, we will come together as a school to celebrate our love of reading.

This year, our celebrations will be based around the book The Day the Crayons Quit by Drew Daywalt. We ask that your child comes to school dressed in one single colour, so that they look like a crayon.

During the day, children will be making headbands in a corresponding colour to complete their costumes. This will allow all children to join in and celebrate World Book Day together. We also hope this approach will mean that families do not need to buy anything special, as children can wear clothes they already have at home.

When choosing your child's outfit, please ensure that it is suitable for playing safely outside at break times, that your child will be able to use the toilet independently, and that it is appropriate for craft activities, as they may get messy.

Please look out for optional homework activities and competitions, which will be shared before half-term.

Thank you for your continued support.
